Message: “Feelin’ FOMO”

Text: Mark 5:1-8, 18-20 (NIV)

1 They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes. 2 When Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an impure spirit came from the tombs to meet him. 3 This man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain. 4 For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No one was strong enough to subdue him. 5 Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him. 7 He shouted at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God’s name don’t torture me!” 8 For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of this man, you impure spirit!”

18 As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. 19 Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.” 20 So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

1. What stood out to you from Sunday’s message? Did God speak something specific to you?

FOMO, or “The Fear of Missing Out” is something that most people struggle with, whether they admit it or not. The key is not wanting to miss out on the right things in life.

2. Is there any aspect of your walk with God, your calling, purpose, promises, etc that you ever fear you will miss out on?

A true follower of Jesus is not nearly as afraid of missing out on this life as they are of their friends missing out on the next one.

3. What do you fear missing out on in this life so much that it hinders you from giving more attention and time to living for eternity?

The truth is, God has given you eyes for people that no one else in our church has eyes for. You may not always be exactly where you want to be, but you may be around exactly who God wants you to be around.

4. Name someone that you believe God put you in their life for a reason. What does it look like for you to being to pray for, invest in, and lead them to Jesus on a regular basis?

5. What do you need prayer for this week? Take some time to pray for one another.
